Turkey and the International Monetary Fund (2000-2002)

Dr.Rawa Zeki Younis AL-Taweel

Assistant Prof. Regional studies centre.Mosul University

Aastract

What can be said is that the economic crisis in Turkey started with the beginning of the intervention IMF and the World Bank in the Turkish economy in 1999 under the title fight inflation that accompanied the Turkish economy since the emergence of the modern Turkish state, and during the three years of this intervention was the entire Turkish economy under the grip IMF to register worst performance since more than half of the century, where all the country's resources-oriented loans offered by the Fund, means that the United States has tightened its control over political decision by the Turkish control of the economy
